SWEETHEART, FOR CHRISTMAS. These are questions daily asked and not so easily an-Swered.

Can't we help you with these problems?

How would a CARVER, with or without a case, do for the father and the husband?

Then the SCISSORS and SCISSOR CASES, or possibly a pretty pearl or solid silver-handled POCKET KNIFE may be just the thing your mother, sister or sweetheart is longing for.

You can tickle your young brother or your children by the gift of a pair of SKATES, or possibly, if skating days are over, a nice RAZOR would be the thing. All these and many other articles suitable for Christ-mas Gifts may be found in our Hardware Department. In purchasing Cutlery of us you buy from the largest stock in the city. BARBER & ROSS.

reported by the Court of Claims. He thought that they should be referred to the judiciary committee to examine the decisions of the court and the law respecting them.
Mr. Mitchell concurred in the suggestion, and said that those awards of the Court of Claims were mere certificates and had no conclusives on the Sente or on Congresse.

clusiveness on the Senate or on Congress.

Mr. Cockrell expressed himself in the same sense, and said it was farcical to call them judgments. They were no judgments, but were findings.

Finally the matter was referred to the committee on claims.

Mr. Stanford, accompanied by his colleague Mr. Felton, advanced to the clerk's desk and took the oath of office for his new senatorial term, and then introduced several bills, comprising the following:

Telegraph Operators to Be Made a Part of the Army.

Senator Morrill, by request, introduced a bill, which, if enacted, will entitle every telegraph operator who served during the war to make application for appointment on the local police force or membership in the G. A. R. The bill provides that "all persons engaged in the operation and construction of military telegraph lines during the war of the operation and construction of military telegraph lines during the war of the rebellion are hereby declared to have been a part of the army of the United States, and the Secretary of War is hereby directed to prepare a roll of such persons and to issue to each upon application, unless it apto issue to each upon application, unless it appears that his service was not creditably performed, a suitable certificate of honorable discharge, reciting the act and the term and character of his service; provided that the act shall not be construed to entitle the persons herein mentioned to any pay, allowance, bounty or pension other than that heretofore received by them."

Some comment was made on the phraseole the bill by those who read it. No distinct is made between the constructors and op-erators who served in the Union army and those who worked for the confederacy. Under charge as the man who imperiled his lift and cultivated key paralysis in behalf of th

Senator Gibson (La.) introduced his bill rein-troduced early in the present session appropri-ating $10,000,000 to improve the navigation and afford safety to commerce on the Mississippi river and to prevent destructive floods. The amendments consist of only two important yerbal changes.

Additional insult was effered the American minister on Saturday in the case of one of the refugees under his protection, who applied for a release upon furnishing bonds to appear when wanted by the authorities.

This was recently granted to another refugee in the Spanish legation. The government replied that the refugee must first leave the American legation, surrender himself to the Chilean authorities and submit to imprisonment. The government, after he had done these things, would consider his request not

SAILOR SHIELDS' STORY.

He Was Beaten by Chileans When He Said He Was an American, SAN DIEGO, CAL., Dec. 22.—The steamer Keeweena of the Atlantic and Pacific packet line has reached this port with 3,000 tons of freight for San Diego and San Franfreight for San Diego and San Francisco. On her way she was disabled and compelled to go into Valparaiso for repairs. She left Valparaiso November 30 and brought up Sailor Patrick Shields, who was maitreated by the Chileans. He had been on shore at Valaparaiso with a companion and was arrested by the police. He was not treated with special brutality, he says, until he stated he was an American, whereupon he was knocked down and beaten. He managed to escape from the police, but was recaptured by mounted officers and was this time beaten into insensibility, in which condition he was finally without trial sent con board the police into insensibility, in
